LAKE—LOOKING NORTH

Located as it is in the beautiful Piedmont section of Virginia, near the Blue Ridge Mountains, with every advantage of climate and country, and equipped with artistic buildings, this school possesses unusual material advantages. Directed as it is in accordance with the highest standards of educational work for women, and led by a faculty of persons who have had the best training in their special lines of work afforded by this country and Europe, it is able to take its place with the best colleges for women in the country.

A full Collegiate Course of four years and two years of preparatory work are given.

Sweet Briar is located on the main line of the Southern railroad, twelve miles north of Lynchburg. It is 1,300 feet above sea level, in a tract of 3,000 acres of land donated by the founder. The conditions of health are unsurpassed. The college buildings are new and modern in every respect. The table is supplied from the dairy, garden and orchards owned by the college. The water is from artesian wells and pure springs. Riding, boating and open air exercises of all sorts are encouraged. A physician resides on the campus. The fourth college year opens September 21st, 1909. Catalogue and views sent on application to
